

A Retreat/Camp for Learning and Singing Sacred Harp

Camp Fasola Europe

Mon, 17 Sep/3pm - Fri, 21 Sep/9am

Wichrowe Wzgórze—Chmielno, Poland

Sponsored by the Sacred Harp Musical Heritage Association, Camp Fasola is an immersive experience for learning Sacred Harp singing, history, and traditions. Camp Fasola is open to both beginning and experienced singers. No experience is necessary. Multiple daily sessions are devoted to Sacred Harp lessons, as well as times for fellowship, singing, and recreation. Campers are involved in practical experiences to support camp operation just like at all day singings. Camp attendance has exceeded 2,800 since 2003.

The camp fee covers four nights lodging, meeting rooms, eleven meals, snacks, t-shirts, lessons, and activities. Sleeping quarters at Wichrowe Wzgórze are lodge style (linens provided) with multiple campers per room. Camp fee for guests not participating in the Sacred Harp activities is an additional 300 USD. Reservations are available on a first come / first served basis with a 50 USD deposit. Campers under age 19 must be accompanied by a parent/guardian who will be responsible for supervising them around the clock. Travel to/from camp is the responsibility of campers. Payments in Polish zloty are allowed for residents of Poland only. All others should be made in USD.

What Happens at Camp:

Camp Fasola is a wonderful opportunity to learn more about Sacred Harp and fellowship with fellow singers from a wide range of different countries, some new to Sacred Harp and some lifelong singers. Perhaps the more appropriate term for this event at should be “Sacred Harp Retreat at Beautiful Wichrowe Wzgórze.”

There will be a choice of music classes for beginners and those with more experience. There will also be a choice of other classes about topics such as the music, learning to lead songs, the history, traditional singers and how to run and organise singings. The teachers will be experienced singers from both Europe and the USA.

There will be lots of singing during the day and chances to practice new skills at the evening singings.

Not all is about singing and study. There will be opportunities to use the wide choice of recreational and spa facilities, also.

The Place:

Camp is at Wichrowe Wzgórze at Chmielno, a 45 minute ride from Gdansk airport. In the summer it is a modern wedding venue beside a large and beautiful lake. The accommodation is in shared twin and family sized rooms with linen provided. Traditional Polish food is served with the main meal at noon.

Getting There:

For those travelling by car, there is parking on site. For those arriving by air at Gdansk airport there will be a choice of very reasonably priced taxis, and transport will be provided at specific times during Monday to meet arriving groups.

Leaving Camp:

After the evening singing on Thursday the beach barbecue is a very special social time.

Camp will end after breakfast on Friday. For those attending the Poland Convention, a bus will be arranged to central Warsaw for which a small fee is charged. There is usually a unique minuted Sacred Harp Convention on the bus ride from Chmielno to Warsaw.
